

Matthew Pitcock

301 Court Drive, Unit A143 Princeton, NJ 08540 | mp6396@princeton.edu | (740) 297-5921

---

Education

---

Princeton University

PhD in Economics; Primary Field: Macroeconomics, Secondary Field: Trade

Expected May 2029

Columbia University

Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics/Statistics and Economics; Summa cum Laude

April 2021

Research Positions

---

Princeton University

Research Assistant for Prof. Gianluca Violante

June 2024-Present

Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago

Research Assistant- Macroeconomics Team

July 2021- July 2023

Teaching Positions

---

Princeton University Teaching Assistant

Eco 316 (Sports Economics), Eco 350 (International Trade), Spi 512c (Macroeconomic Analysis for Policymakers)

August 2025-Present

Columbia University Teaching Assistant

Econ 1101 (Principles of Economics)

August 2020- April 2021

Works in Progress

---

- Optimal Monetary Responses to Tariffs According to HANK
- HANK and Transfers, joint with Alessandro Villa and Leonardo Melosi

Graduate Coursework

---

- Microeconomic Theory I/II (Eco 501/502), Macroeconomic Theory I/II (Eco 503/504), Econometric Theory I/II (Eco 517/518)
- Advanced Macroeconomic Theory I/II (Eco 521/522), Macroeconomic Perspectives on Inequality (Eco 528), Econometric Modeling (Eco 515), International Trade I/II (Eco 551/552)

Summer Programs

---

London School of Economics

July 2022

- Advanced Computational Macroeconomics; Taught by Wouter den Haan and Pontus Rendahl

Skills

---

- Proficiency in Matlab, Stata, Julia
- Proficiency in German